St. Basil the Great, Bishop and Doctor of the Church (January 2)

Born in Caesarea, capital of Cappadocia (central Turkey), Basil studied rhetoric there and in Constantinople and Athens. He was baptized with his friend, St. Gregory Nazianzen, about 358 and ordained around 365. After being chosen bishop of Caesarea in 370, he championed the faith defined at the Council of Nicaea and refuted the Arian heresy. Many of his homilies and treatises are extant, and the monastic Rule of St. Basil is still observed in the Eastern Church. He is revered as a Doctor of the Church. On his feast day, remember St. Basil said, "Do everything possible to make yourself worthy of the Kingdom. Do not disdain the invitation you have received" (St. Basil the Great, Exhortation to Baptism, 7-8, as quoted in Advent and Christmas with the Church Fathers [2010], 33).

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Religious (January 4)

Raised Episcopalian in colonial New York City, Elizabeth married William Magee Seton, a merchant. The couple had five children. William died in 1803 in Italy, where Elizabeth learned about Catholicism from the family who gave her hospitality. Wars had bankrupted the family's shipping business. After becoming a Catholic in New York in 1805, the now-poor Elizabeth was abandoned by old friends, but accepted the offer of a Baltimore priest to open a school for girls there. In 1809 she founded the U.S. Sisters of Charity, whose schools and orphanages grew in number. She became the first native-born U.S. saint in 1975 and is the patron of converts.

St. John Neumann, Bishop (January 5)

A native of Bohemia, John entered the seminary and was nearing ordination when he departed for the United States. He joined the Redemptorists and served as a priest in New York, Maryland and Pennsylvania. In 1852 he was named the fourth bishop of Philadelphia. He founded more than 50 churches and greatly expanded Catholic education. John had a fondness for immigrants and knew six languages. His pastoral zeal was evident up to his last moments of life. He collapsed and died in the street at age 48.

St. Andre Bessette, Religious (January 6)

Born in Canada, Andre worked for three years in the United States as a weaver and manual laborer. After returning to Canada in 1870, he joined the Congregation of Holy Cross and took final vows in 1874. For decades, Brother Andre humbly served his community near Montreal as doorman, janitor, barber, gardener and infirmarian. With St. Joseph as his model and intercessor, he developed a healing ministry and huge following. In 1904, he moved into Montreal to help build the Oratory of the Holy Cross, and remained there for the rest of his life. When this "Miracle Man of Montreal" was canonized in 2010, Pope Benedict XVI said he "lived the beatitude of the pure of heart."

St. Raymond of Penyafort, Priest (January 7)

Born in Catalonia, Spain, he was already an accomplished academic and preacher when he joined the Dominicans in 1222. Called to Rome as papal confessor in 1230, he collected conciliar and papal degrees in a standard work used by canon lawyers for nearly 700 years. Returning to Spain in 1236, he devoted himself to converting Muslims and Jews, establishing schools to teach Arabic and Hebrew, and launching the Inquisition in Catalonia. He was Dominican master general for two years.

Pastor's Column

What are your Priorities?

When was the last time you thought about what was most important in your life? It will likely be no surprise that no matter what your state of life the Church strongly suggests that you make God your first priority. But what should be number 2, or number 3, etc. ? So many good things compete for our attention. Parents, children, family, spouse, friends, ourselves, strangers in need.
If God is our first priority then what order would He have us place the others?

If you are unmarried I recommend that the order be God, parents, family, friends, others, self.

When you enter into marriage that order changes to God, spouse, children, parents, family, friends, others, self.

When I tell this to couples in our marriage prep program, sometimes one or both think that the children should come before the spouse. Usually the reasoning is that the children need them more and the spouses can take care of themselves.

My answer to that is simply that the best thing that you can do for your child is to love your spouse like crazy. So by putting your spouse above them you really are doing what is best for them. Now there is certainly a difference between a need and a want. If your spouse wants you to make them a sandwich and little Johnny just broke his arm and needs to go to the Urgent Care; I'm not saying you should make the sandwich first. Needs always come before wants.

If you follow this order when you get married it is important to realize that your parents go from number 2 to number 3, behind your spouse, and number 4, behind your children. This can be quite difficult for some parents to understand and deal with. Be patient and loving until they get the hang of it.

Sometimes I feel a little sorry for myself. At best I'm number 6 on my own or even number 8. That is until I think about the fact that I am #2 on my wife's list, #2 on my kids list, #3 on my parent's list and most importantly #1 on God's list. Everyone is #1 on God's list.

Do your priorities line up with the one's suggested above? It's a good idea to make sure you are on the right track now and then. I need to refocus all the time.

We thank our wonderful parishioners who helped decorate the Christmas trees in our Church this year.

We also thank the Knights of Columbus for their help setting up all the trees.

Christmas Blessings

Fr. Jacob eagerly joined our Rosary Makers when he arrived at our parish. We are very grateful to have Fr. Jacob and we thank him for sharing his time and talent with the Rosary Makers on Friday afternoons.

When we meditate on These Mysteries may we imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise Through Christ our Lord.

Two parishioners donated boxes of beads to our Rosary Makers.

We are very grateful and blessed.

Thank you!

Rosary Makers Workshop

We make Rosaries to give to people, so all can pray the Rosary of the Blessed Mother and fulfill her wish to say the Rosary everyday.

Our Rosaries are made with beautiful beads purchased by the dedicated Rosary Makers. Some are made with donated beads, broken jewelry, and old necklaces.

We have some extra tools to show you how to get started, but each maker should eventually have their own set.

Come join the fellowship, friendship and prayer,
every Friday afternoon from 1pm to 3pm
in the parish hall.
