You should:

 Be married for 25 years, 50 years, or 5 year increments after 50 years (e.g. 55, 60)
 Give the office a minimum of 2 weeks notice and allow time for the office to confirm the date and Mass time with the Priest
 Have your family arrive early enough to reserve enough space toward the front

Weekly Reflection

Ch. 1:The Sacred Meal in the Life & Ministry of Jesus, pt. 2 He was destined to be, not only the host at the sacred banquet, but the meal itself. And to Christ's manger came the shepherds (evocative of the poor and marginalized, the lost sheep of the house of Israel) and kings (evocative of the nations of the world), drawn there as though by a magnet. Thus commenced the realization of Isaiah's vision. A story that can be found in all three of the synoptic Gospels is that the conversion of Levi (or Matthew) the tax collector. We hear that as Jesus was passing by, he spotted Matthew at his tax collector's post. To be a tax collector in Jesus' time-a Jew collaborating with the Roman occupying power in the oppression of one's own people—was to be a contemptible figure, someone akin to a French collaborator during the Nazi period. Jesus gazed at this man and said, simply, "Follow me." Did Jesus invite Matthew because the tax collector merited it? Was Jesus responding to a request from Matthew or some hidden longing in the sinner's heart? Certainly not. Grace, by definition, comes unbidden and without explanation. In Caravaggio's magnificent painting of this scene, Matthew, dressed anachronistically in sixteenth-century finery, responds to Jesus' summons by pointing incredulously to himself and wearing a quizzical expression, as if to say, "Me? You want me?" The hand of Christ in Caravaggio's painting is adapted from the hand of Adam in Michelangelo's depiction of the creation of man on the Sistine Chapel ceiling. Jesu as creation is ex nihilo (out of nothing), so conversion is a new creation, a gracious remaking of a person from the nonbeing of his sin. Matthew, we are told, immediately got up and followed the Lord. But where did he follow him? To a banquet! "And as he sat at dinner in the house" is the first thing we read after the declaration that Matthew followed him. Before he calls Matthew to do anything, before he sends him on mission, Jesus invites Matthew to recline in easy fellowship around a festive table. Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis comments, "The deepest meaning of Christian discipleship is not to work for Jesus but to be with Jesus." The former tax collector listens to the Word, laughs with him, breaks bread with him, and in this finds his true identity. Adam was the friend of Yahweh before becoming, through his own fear and pride, Yahweh's enemy. Now Jesus, Yahweh made flesh, seeks to reestablish this lost friendship with Adam's descendants. The Gospel then tells us that many other sinners and tax collectors, inspired, we presume, by Matthew's example, "came and were sitting with Jesus and his disciples." This is but one example of how Jesus embodies the Isaian vision of all the nations of the world streaming to unity around Mt. Zion. Christ himself is the meeting of divinity and humanity, and hence he is the temple, the place of right worship. And thus it is around him that the nations will gather to be fed. The same grace that summoned Matthew now, through Matthew, summons the rest, and a community of sinners-become-diners is formed. Naturally, this coming together stirs up the resentment of the Pharisees, who ask the disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" In our dysfunction, having lost contact with the God through whom all are one, we tend to order ourselves in exclusive and domineering ways, determining the insiders precisely in the contradistinction to the outsiders.

Join us each week as we work through Bishop Robert Barron's book, This Is My Body: A Call to Eucharistic Revival.

Excerpt from a treatise on the admirable Heart of Jesu

Heroes of the Eucharist ST. JOHN EUDES

I ask you to consider that our Lord Jesus Christ is your true head and that you are a member of his body. He belongs to you as the head belongs to the body. All that is his is yours: breath, heart, body, soul and all his faculties. All of these you must use as if they belonged to you, so that in cserving him you may give him praise, love and glory. You belong to him as a member belongs to the head. This is why he earnestly desires you to serve and glorify the Father by using all your faculties as if they were his. He belongs to you, but more than that, he longs to be in you, living and ruling in you, as the head lives and rules in the body. He desires that whatever is in him may live and rule in you: his breath in your breath, his heart in your heart, all the faculties of his soul in the faculties of your soul, so that these words may be fulfilled in you: Glorify God and bear him in your body, that the life of Jesus may be made manifest in you. You belong to the Son of God, but more than that, you ought to be in him as the members are in the head. All that is in you must be incorporated into him. You must receive life from him and be ruled by him. There will be no true life for you except in him, for he is the one source of your movements, of the actions and the strength of your life. He must be both the source and the purpose of your life, so that you may fulfill these words: None of us lives as his own master and none of us dies as his own master. While we are the Lord's. That is why Christ died and came to life again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. Finally, you are one will, one mind, one heart. And he must be your breath, heart, love, life, your all. These great gifts in the follower of Christ originate from bartism. They are increased and strengthened through confirmation and by making good use of other graces that are given by God. Through the holy Eucharist they are brought to perfection.

The 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 31- September 1: Worship Aid

Welcome to St. Clare of Assisi Parish! We are glad you are here for the celebration of the Holy Mass. Please take note of the guidelines for the reception of Holy Communion: Prior to receiving Communion, Catholics should have fasted for one hour; water and medicine excepting. Catholics aware of grave sin (e.g. intentionally missing Mass on Sunday/Holy Days, abortion, theft, sexual sin, use of contraceptives, etc.) should go to Confession prior to receiving Communion. Because of our belief in the Eucharist being the Body and Blood of Christ, reception of Communion is reserved to Catholics. There may exist circumstances in the lives of some individual Catholics, which may not facilitate immediate participation in receiving Communion (e.g., cohabitation, marriage outside the Church). A priest would be happy to assist you in rectifying these situations. We come together to worship God in spirit and in truth.

Processional: There's a Wideness in God's Mercy 645

1. There's a wideness in God's mercy like the wideness of the sea. There's a kindness in God's justice which is more than liberty. There is plentiful redemption in the blood that has been shed. There is joy for all the members in the sorrows of the Head.

2.For the love of God is broader than the measures of the mind. And the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind. If our love were but more faithful, we should rest upon God's word. And our lives would be thanksgiving for the goodness of our Lord.

3. Troubled souls, why will you scatter like a crowd of frightened sheep? Foolish hearts, why will you wander from a love so true and deep? There is welcome for the sinner, and more graces for the good. There is mercy with the Savior, there is healing in His blood.

Sign of the Cross & Greeting

Penitential Act:

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Kyrie eleison. Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Christe Eleison. Kyrie eleison. Kyrie eleison.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Liturgy of the Word: Worship Hymnal 1173

Responsorial Psalm: R/. The one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

1. Whoever walks blamelessly and does justice; who thinks the truth in his heart and slanders not with his tongue.

2. Who harms not his fellow man, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbor; by whom the reprobate is despised, while he honors those who fear the LORD.

3. Who lends not his money at usury and accepts no bribe against the innocent. Whoever does these things shall never be disturbed.

Gospel Acclamation: R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Father willed to give us birth by the word of truth that we may be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Offertory Hymn: Faith of Our Fathers (A Living Faith) 676

1.Faith of our fathers, living still in spite of dungeon, fire, and sword. Oh, how our hearts beat high with joy whene'er we hear that glorious word. Faith of our fathers, holy faith, we will be true to you till death.

2.Faith of our mothers, daring faith, your work for Christ is love revealed. Spreading God's word from pole to pole, making love known and freedom real. Faith of our mothers, holy faith, we will be true to you till death.

3.Faith of our sisters, brothers too, who still must bear oppression's might, raising on high, in prisons dark, the cross of Christ still burning bright. Faith for today, O living faith, we will be true to you till death.

4.Faith born of God, O call us yet, bind us with all who follow you, sharing the struggle of Your cross until the world is made anew. Faith born of God, O living faith, we will be true to you till death.

The Sign of Peace

Agnus Dei:

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis. (2x) Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem.

Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. (2x) Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Communion Antiphon: O Lord, I will be mindful of Your justice alone; You have taught me, O God, from my youth; and so, unto old age and gray hairs, O God, forsake me not.

Communion Hymn: Take and Eat 940

Take and eat; take and eat: this is my body given up for you. Take and drink; take and drink: this is my blood given up for you.

1.I am the Word that spoke and light was made; I am the seed that died to be reborn. I am the bread that comes from heav'n above; I am the vine that fills your cup with joy. 2.I am the way that leads the exile home; I am the truth that sets the captive free. I am the life that raises up the dead; I am your peace, true peace my gift to you.

3.I am the Lamb that takes away your sin; I am the gate that guards you night and day. You are my flock: you know the shepherd's voice; You are my own: your ransom is my blood.

4.I am the cornerstone that God has laid; A chosen stone and precious in his eyes. You are God's dwelling place, on me you rest; Like living stones, a temple for God's praise. 5.I am the light that came into the world; I am the light that darkness cannot hide. I am the morning star that never sets; lift up your face, in you my light will shine.

6.I am the first and last, the Living One; I am the Lord who died that you might live. I am the bridegroom, this my wedding song; You are my bride, come to the marriage feast.

Communion Hymn: I Receive the Living God 923

I receive the living God, and my heart is full of joy. (2x)

1.Jesus says: I am the Bread sent to you from God Most High. Take and eat, and you will live; you need never fear to die.

2.Jesus says: I am the Vine, farm from whom no life can grow. If you join yourself to me, a rich harvest you will know.

3.Jesus says: I am the Way, and my path is straight and true. Follow me to where I lead; there my Father waits for you.

4.Jesus says: I am the Truth. If you follow close to me, you will know me in your heart, and my word will make you free.

5.Jesus says: I am the Life, raised in triumph from the dead. As one Body now remain, members join to me, the Head.

6.Jesus says: I am the Day, shining brightly through your night. Welcome me, and you will walk by the Spirit's guiding light.

The Concluding Rites

Blessing & Dismissal

Prayer to St. Michael: St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Recessional Hymn: I Sing the Mighty Power of God

1.I sing the mighty pow'r of God that made the mountains rise, that spread the flowing seas abroad, and built the lofty skies. I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day; the moon shines full at His command, and all the stars obey.
2.I sing the goodness of the Lord that filled the earth with food; He formed the creatures with His word, and then pronounced them good. Lord, how thy wonders are displayed where're I turn my eye; if I survey the ground I tread, or gaze upon the sky!
3.There's not a plant or flow'r below, but makes thy glories known; and clouds arise, and tempests blow by order from thy throne; while all that borrows life from thee is ever in thy care, and ev'ry where that I can be, Thou, God are present there.
